SHORELINE PLANTING

Why Create a Shoreline Project in Your Community?

The United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change predicted that 50 percent of wetlands on Earth have been altered by human development and 70 percent of total wetlands are threatened habitats. Despite recent climate efforts, this number is expected to rise due to threats from sea level rise, climate-driven droughts, and human migration. In Central Florida, littoral zones around lakes can provide many ecological benefits if properly planted with Florida native plants. These water bodies provide an opportunity for community members to support their local ecosystems, improve water quality, reduce erosion, reduce the likelihood of algal blooms, provide neighborhood beautification, and improve public health.

Shoreline Projects include the planting of Florida Native Plants along the shoreline of lakes, ponds, and other waterbodies.

Desired Outcomes in Working With IDEAS For Us:

IDEAS For Us Will work with your group to create a detailed funding proposal for your organization to submit to Orange County for funding. IDEAS For Us will engage staff in ordering supplies, delivering supplies to the project site, building the installation, and working with your group to engage residents if possible to promote environmental education. Final photos of the project will be taken and shared with your group. Your group will be required to work with IDEAS For Us in developing the funding proposal details, submitting the grant as prepared by IDEAS For Us, and implementing the on-going care of the project.

The final project will be a beautiful shoreline restoration project filled with Florida native plants as appropriate for your area's soil, water, and environmental needs. This will include plants, tools, debris removal items, and other supplies provided by the funder (Orange County).
